

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS MAJOR IN MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS

TOP 5% OF BUSINESS PROGRAMS WORLDWIDE

With a major in management information systems (MIS) you are positioned for a career that helps business evolve with the continually changing information technology field. Information systems are used by every industry and increasingly connect to all areas of business.

Managing data is critical in the business environment and your MIS coursework provides hands-on experiences while building your business foundation. You will analyze systems and the users' needs to develop systems, design and launch databases, and evaluate and create data visualizations.

- Get involved with college clubs such as Beta Alpha Psi and MIS Club.
- Participate in internship or co-op program, an opportunity for you to earn six to nine months of full-time work experience in the middle of your college career.
- Work with community partners to create mobile apps that meets the needs of your client.
